

Policy for Executive Compensation

The President & CEO of Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHCDC) is the principal representative of RMHCDC, and the person responsible for the efficient operation of the organization. Therefore, it is the desire of RMHCDC to provide a fair yet reasonable and not excessive compensation for the President & CEO (and any other highly compensated employees and consultants).

The process for determining compensation is as follows: RMHCDC Executive Committee shall annually evaluate the President & CEO on his/her performance and ask for his/her input on matters of performance and compensation.

Every two years, the Board Chair will obtain research and information to make a recommendation to the Executive Committee for the compensation (salary and benefits) of the President & CEO (and other highly compensated employees or consultants) based on a review of comparability data. For example, the data should document compensation levels and benefits for similarly qualified individuals in comparable positions at similar organizations. This data may include the following:

1. Salary and benefit compensation studies by independent sources;
2. Written job offers for positions at similar organizations;
3. Documented telephone calls about similar positions at both nonprofit and for-profit organizations; and
4. Information obtained from the IRS Form 990 filings of similar organizations.

Concurrent Documentation. To approve the compensation for the President & CEO (and other highly compensated employees and consultants) the Executive Committee must document how it reached its decisions, including the data on which it relied, in minutes of the meeting during which the compensation was approved. Documentation will include:

- a) A description of the compensation and benefits and the date it was approved;
- b) The members of the board who were present during the discussion about compensation and benefits, and the results of the vote;
- c) A description of the comparability data relied upon and how the data was obtained; and
- d) Any actions taken (such as abstaining from discussion and vote) with respect to consideration of the compensation by anyone who is otherwise a member of the board but who had a conflict of interest with respect to the decision on the compensation and benefits.

Independence in Setting Compensation: The Chair of the Board of Directors, who is a volunteer and not compensated by the Nonprofit, will operate independently without undue influence from the President & CEO.

No member of the Executive Committee will be a staff member, the relative of a staff member, or have any relationship with staff that could present a conflict of interest.